

HAVILAND ANNEXES NEW ENGLAND TITLE

Brooklawn Star Finishes 2 Up on Oxnard in 36-Hole Final at Hartford.

Special to The New York Times.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 27.—Paul Haviland of Brooklawn, Connecticut titleholder last year, won the New England golf championship at the Hartford Golf Club today, being 2 up on B. F. Oxnard of the Metacomet Club of Providence, after 36 holes.

Haviland was 2-up at the end of the forenoon round and was never headed during the afternoon.

Haviland was 3 down for the first six holes this morning and then won the seventh, eighth and ninth to become even. Haviland took the eleventh with a birdie 3 and Oxnard won the short thirteenth with a par 3. Haviland took the 455-yard sixteenth with a par 4 and after the seventeenth was halved in pars, Haviland won the long uphill eighteenth with a par 4 to become 2 up.

The pair played the first nine holes even this afternoon, Haviland winning the long third and the seventh and Oxnard taking the first and fourth, but being still 2 down. Haviland became 3 up at the eleventh but Oxnard took the twelfth and then threw away the 140-yard thirteenth when he three-putted for less than fifteen feet and halved with Haviland in 4s.

Both were in trouble on the 195-yard fifteenth, but Oxnard made a beautiful explosion from a trap to the pin and won the hole, 3 to 4.

Oxnard's approach to the lofty eighteenth green was to the top of a bunker, and although he made a pretty recovery and had a chance for a par 4. Haviland overran the hole and gave Oxnard an unnegotiable stymie, which ended the match.
