

Freshman Scores First Ace On New Yale Golf Course

Special to The New York Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 20.—George Coe Draves 2d of New York City, a Yale freshman, today made the first hole-in-one recorded on the new Ray Tompkins golf course. Playing with his classmate, Richard D. Wood 2d of Philadelphia, he dropped a mashie shot into the cup on the 135-yard fifth island hole. Dexter Cummins, 1925, of Chicago, former Yale champion and twice intercollegiate champion, created a score for the course which promises to stand for some time, when he covered it in 76.

M'GRAW, BALDUC WILL BOX TONIGHT

Feature Card at Dexter Park in Brooklyn—Herman Engages
Adams at Velodrome.

The much-postponed bout between Philly McGraw, Detroit's Greek lightweight, and Georgie Balduc, sturdy fighter of Lewiston, Me., will be held tonight at the Dexter Park Arena, Brooklyn, if the weather man will provide suitable conditions. Twice this bout has been postponed in the past fortnight because of rain.

The McGraw-Balduc bout is the feature ten-round clash on a card which holds two other ten-round matches. In these the principals will be Sammy Aaronson vs. Frankie Fink and Johnny Clinton vs. Frankie Pitcher.

The opening of the New York Velodrome as a fight club, twice postponed because of inclement weather, is scheduled for tonight, when Manager John M. Chapman will conduct a card featured by three ten-round bouts. In the star battle Italian Jack Herman, Yonkers heavyweight, will engage Sergeant Jack Adams of St. Louis. Eddie Burnbrook and Morris Meola, welterweights, are paired in the ten-round semi-final. The first ten-round bout will be between Al Tripoli and Nick Quagerelli, featherweight rivals.

An amateur boxing tournament under the auspices of the Northern A. A. is scheduled for tonight at the Coney Island Stadium. Ten special bouts among top-notch amateurs are scheduled.
